We ask ALL VENDORS to please review these policies for every Nicholson Event. If you feel these guidelines are outside your scope or standards, we will understand if you choose not to work at the Daisy Festival. If these rules/standards are not kept, we reserve the right to ask the vendor to leave without a refund.

- Please do not disrespect customers, city staff, or other vendors.
- Please do not barter with or try to steal someone else's customers.
- Please do not quarrel with other vendors.
- Please respect the space designated for you; we will do our best to accommodate special needs.
- If more space is needed, you may purchase another spot (if available).
- After the festival, please clean your area. We ask that all vendors leave your area the way you found it.
- Please DO NOT WORK ON THE POWER OUTLETS! We have city staff available to work on them.
- All booths must remain open until the time(s) posted. Early closing must be cleared first by Festival Officials.
- If you notice any suspicious activities, please notify the city staff.

The City of Nicholson wants everyone involved with the Daisy Festival to have a pleasant experience. We know we cannot control Mother Nature, but we will do our best for those things we can control. We are hoping for a great Daisy Festival this year for all!
